

Said
In Cypress

That you'd be surprised how many interesting conversations we've had up and down the street in the past two weeks with people who are familiar with the section of the Mojave desert which we visited. The power companies and other utilities were responsible for giving employment to a great many skilled workers in the days when California was being developed. Many of those men found their ways to more routine work and pleasant, rural surroundings in later years. In fact, some of them are your neighbors!

That some of the spirit of the west is recaptured by Frank Vesel at the quarter horse races at his ranch on Katella road. Not on a large scale, of course, but you can get a little of the picture as calves are roped, steers tied, and horses are called on by their cowboy riders for cooperation during the proceedings.

That many of our boys and girls in the Cypress area took advantage of the opportunity to learn to swim this summer, or to improve on their swimming. Mrs. Wheeler, of the Anaheim chapter's office of the American Red Cross, states that the response from the outlying districts this year was most gratifying. We are sorry that we could not get the children from here who participated, but in the lower classes no check was kept on individuals by address.

That with the reading of this paragraph you will have heard everything! Yes sir! A gadget has been developed which allows for a patron to comfortably grab forty winks while sitting under the drier at the hair dressers. We know, because we tested the chin strap affair which is now standard equipment at Evie's.

That we were happy to find out who "Pinky" is, and return a lovely little religious charm of her church's faith to her this week. Strung on a black ribbon, it really went the rounds. "Pinky" is none other than Mary Carol Lopez. It is she and her sister, Stella, whom you always confuse. But we have the girls' word for it—they are not twins. Just happen to be sister look-alikes and attractive in the bargain.

That even if you have no children in the Cypress elementary school this year, we'll give you three good reasons why you'll want to visit anyway some time soon. A colored architect's drawing of the proposed eight-room addition and new administration building and cafeteria is now on display in the lobby. In the trophy case is an attractively arranged exhibit of results of the first summer playground held this vacation under the direction of W. Visel, a new teacher. You will be surprised, no doubt, at ability Cypress children have displayed. And the third reason is that just possibly Miss Dickerson will have one of her floral arrangements in sight somewhere where you may enjoy it. We saw one this week—unbelievable purple and white dahlias, grouped in a flat bowl. We predict that there will never be a time during the year that a posy of some kind won't be in evidence somewhere around Miss D's office.

That now we wish to strike a really serious note. Even though we live in Cypress, since they took the "yellow demon" away from us, you know we "don't get around much any more." There are so many times when we know of social items or news which would be of interest to everyone, but we hesitate to publish on heresy alone. The editor would really appreciate it if a little effort could be made to get news into the paper. It's surprising how many people don't have telephones. We know that we only skim the top in reporting our town's interesting events and the people's activities, but honest, we try hard! A penny post card or telephone call would be appreciated.

AUTO HITS SMALL BOY
Donald Nielson, of Cypress, seven-year-old who was struck by a car near the corner of Lincoln and Walker last Thursday afternoon, apparently suffered no serious injuries. The accident occurred a little after five o'clock in the afternoon, as the youth darted into the path of a car, said to be driven by Miss Ellen Robertson Jones, of 531 south Janss street in Anaheim.
Officers investigating the accident reported that the boy was taken to the Artesia hospital for examination.

DR. HERSHMAN ANNOUNCES CHANGE IN PHONE NUMBER
For the benefit of his customers among Enterprise readers, Dr. Earl A. Hershman, dentist with his office at 18604 So. Pioneer Blvd., Artesia, is announcing a change in his telephone number.
The new number is TOrrey 5-2715. The number which has appeared in Dr. Hershman's professional card in the Enterprise in past issues will no longer be in effect.

REMEMBER CYPRESS
WHITE GOLD DAY
OCTOBER 8th

Price 5c Per Copy

Proclamation To All Cypress Residents

Hear ye, hear ye, all citizens of Cypress!
Let it be known to one and all, male and female, that from this day on until the celebration of White Gold Day, October 8, in the year of etc., 1949, all citizens will dress in the following described costume, to-wit, heretofore and thustly:
THE MEN shall wear at all times, blue denims adorning the lower portion of their anatomy, with their choice of white or colored (plaid, maybe?) shirts on that portion of the physique not covered heretofore by the aforementioned denims.
THE WOMEN shall wear at all times, gingham dresses. The manner in which they should be worn will be left to the discretion of said women.
Complaints should be directed at the chairman of the advertising committee, James Broadbelt, who knows nothing of this proclamation, but under whose committee the blame must fall.

Bus Line To Start Soon Say Bosses

Thanksgiving is the date set for the beginning of the proposed bus line which may connect Cypress with cities to the north, south, east and west.

D. K. Hutchinson and associates of Bell, California, the men who have engineered the formation of the new line, still stand on the word of their attorney, W. J. Puciel of Bell, who claims that under their organizational procedure, they do not need the approval of the State Public Utilities commission. Puciel has spent many months studying existing laws and regulations which he uses to explain his point.

Utilities Commission Disagrees
An announcement by William Gorman, Southern California manager of the commission, states that Hutchinson will have to have the approval of the commission, however, since his proposed system involves the limits of more than one city.

In a speech to the Cypress chamber of commerce recently, Hutchinson discussed the possibilities of having a bus that would connect Cypress with Artesia, Long Beach, Buena Park, Fullerton, Anaheim, and Santa Ana.
Long Beach Asks Questions
Due to the increasing interest in the new venture, the Transportation committee of the Long Beach chamber of commerce has invited Hutchinson to give an explanation of the new line at a special meeting for the purpose September 16.

Los Alamitos Fair Fri., Sat., Sun., Sept. 9-10-11

People from neighboring communities will begin a trek today to Los Alamitos to participate in that town's second fall fair and festival. A carnival with rides will open the program of events tonight, which will continue for three days and two more evenings. Sponsoring group is the business association.

A pet parade will be featured at one o'clock Saturday afternoon, under the direction of Marvin Smith. This will be followed by entertainment on a platform at the festival grounds. Booths for games and lunches will be under the auspices of local organizations.

One of the highlights of the street fair will be the big barbecue dinner on Sunday, starting at noon. Being supervised by Oscar Wattle, Los Alamitos is famous for its barbecues.
Ending with an auction on Sunday evening of a calf, pig and miscellaneous items, proceeds of the entire affair will be used toward the building of a youth center in Los Alamitos.

HOLD REUNION FOR OLD FRIENDS

Several former classmates at Excelsior High school enjoyed the hospitality of the Jack Junker home on Grace street Wednesday evening when Mrs. Junker entertained. A delicious spaghetti dinner was served early in the evening, and the remainder of the time was spent reminiscing.

Two of the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Warner, of Phoenix, were involved in an automobile accident in June which necessitated their being hospitalized in Iowa, he with a broken back and she with a broken arm and leg. Mrs. Warner is an Artesia girl. The couple's two children, Joan and Laverne also attended.

Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt, Sonny Darrel and Boyd, of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. "Mac" McConahay and a visiting cousin of his from Nebraska, and their son George and the host couple and children, Donnie and Virginia.

Meeting on Water District Will Be Held Monday at 8

Invitations have been sent to Cypress and other cities in this area to attend a discussion on the possibilities of forming a metropolitan water district. The Midway City and Westminster chambers of commerce will be hosts.

The meeting will be held at the Westminster school at 8:00 p.m. Monday night.

Purpose of the gathering is to hear definite opinions of the situation from the communities involved. Before the program is set into motion, those parties interested must know whether or not the areas they plan to take in are in favor or not. Miscalculation of the trend of opinion could easily defeat the important measure.

Attorney Will Speak
Present at the meeting will be M. B. Wellington, Santa Ana attorney who has been hired by five cities to investigate the water situation. He will report on the progress of his work and explain the set-up to the persons present.

At various meetings held for the purpose of explaining the vital shortage of water in this area, and the critical condition the supply is in at present, persons in attendance have left expressing disbelief at the facts they heard. Wellington will explain, just how this scarcity of water can be supplemented, and the facts about the cost to the voters.

CYPRESS POTTERY CENTER OPENS DOORS TO PUBLIC

The former real estate office at 5376 Lincoln avenue, now houses the Cypress pottery center, which opened its doors this week.

Under the management of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Watson, the new establishment will offer all types of novelties, nick-nacks and ornaments of the ceramic industry.
The Watsons are living in Long Beach.

VFW Post And Auxiliary Plan For White Gold

Two hamburger stands are planned for White Gold day by the Cypress post no. 9847 of the VFW and its auxiliary. The post's members worked overtime last year on their project, and it was felt that two stands this year, one at each end of the carnival grounds, might eliminate some of the rush and confusion. At the time of the celebration last year, the auxiliary had not yet been organized.

Auxiliary members will attend the regularly scheduled meeting in their hall on Lincoln avenue Monday evening, September 19. Definite arrangements will be made at that time on some of the issues involving White Gold day, since time is getting short for making plans.

BURY HUBBARD KIN AUGUST 29

Death came to A. R. Hubbard, father of Glenn A. Hubbard in Hermosa Beach on Wednesday, August 25. The elderly man was a retired officer of the Los Angeles police force, having served for twenty-one years. He had been ill for the past two and one-half years.

Interment was in Forrest Lawn cemetery on Thursday, August 29.

Survivors besides his son are a grandson, Edgar A. Hubbard, a sister, Mrs. Grace Darnsmont of Santa Monica and his wife, Ethel D., who is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hubbard in their home at 8121 Miller road.

Safety Patrol on Guard as School Bells Ring

As schools reopen this fall for America's 8,000,000 children a vast army of safety patrol boys, 350,000 strong, will help law enforcement agencies protect them from the traffic dangers at street crossings. This typical picture shows patrol boy permitting children to cross on their way to school while traffic has stopped.

Body Returned From Overseas; Buried Saturday
A service was held last Saturday afternoon when last rites were conferred on the body of First Lieutenant James T. Hahn, son of Mrs. Beatrice Hahn, 5581 Sprague street, who died in a German prison camp on September 28, 1944. The Rev. W. H. Galbraith, of the Long Beach Baptist church, officiated at services conducted from the chapel of the Dillard mortuary in Long Beach.

The deceased was born in Pomona and was twenty-four years old at the time of his death. He was graduated from Long Beach Polytechnic high school.

Interment was in Rose Hills Memorial park, the cemetery his mother chose because her son professed to love the hills. Military rites at the committal services were in charge of the Goldens state post of the VFW. Paul bearers, all members of Cypress post no. 9847 of the VFW were H. J. G. Kreissler, Jesse E. Smith, Charles Daniels, Don Wedeking, M. R. Bouse, and Tom Demiris.

Survivors besides his mother are a brother, David, at home; a sister, Mrs. Violet Stocking, of Hemet, Idaho; and his grandfather, E. W. Macdonald, of Long Beach.

Bus No. 1, first afternoon trip.
11:00 a.m. leave school—same schedule as first morning trip, arriving at Miller & Ball at 11:03 a.m. and back at the schoolhouse

STUDYING COSMIC RAYS

Cypress Navy Man Cruises To Equator On Scientific Trip

(Jesse Smith, 5701 Vonnies Lane, recently returned from a navy cruise on the U. S. S. Norton Sound. The ship is a scientific research vessel, and the aclear below tells of the interesting facts of the journey.)

If you should see a great pear-shaped balloon about 170 feet in diameter floating down on California sometime soon, don't think men from Mars are descending. It'll just be one of the plastic, like Polyethylene balloons released from the navy's floating laboratory, the U. S. S. Norton Sound, which sailed into Port Hueneme recently on a leisurely return trip from the South Pacific by way of Honolulu.

Only Ship of Its Kind
The Norton Sound is the first and only ship of its kind in the world. It was a seaplane tender before being converted in 1948 as a "floating experimental laboratory" for testing rockets, guided missiles, obtaining upper atmosphere data, and anything else the scientists want to know.

This time, a group of about nine scientists from Princeton university were aboard trying to find out something about cosmic rays in the various parts of the world. It's in the field of nuclear physics, cosmic rays high energy content and coming from outer space.

"Operation Skyhook"
Anyway, the Norton Sound left its home base at Port Hueneme July 1, and since then has been conducting "Operation skyhook"—the cosmic ray study due south of the Hawaiian Islands on the equator.

$1000 Balloons
The big balloons, costing $1000 each with gondola attached for radioing data back to the ship, are charged with helium gas and sent aloft about 100,000 feet. Sometimes they disintegrate after 48 hours and sometimes they float down.

So, if you find one, don't worry about having a rubbery "flying disc" on your hands. Just keep it, courtesy of the scientific U. S. navy.

C. VAN DYKE'S ENJOY VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Dyke and their children returned Monday from a ten-day visit with his uncle, the John Van Dyke's in Idaho Falls, Idaho. They made the return motor trip through Sacramento and the San Joaquin valley.

This is the first trip the family has enjoyed since coming to the United States from Holland. Van Dyke began his duties as milker the next day after his arrival, and has not had time for travel until enjoying the two weeks' long vacation.

Carolyn Kelley's Birthday Sunday

Six-year-old Carolyn Kelley was complimented with a birthday party last Sunday afternoon by her mother, Mrs. G. L. Kelley, at the family's home on Grace avenue. Thirteen guests were invited to help make the occasion a gala one.

Gifts were presented the honored guest following a period of children's games played for prizes. Mrs. Kelley then served Carolyn's favorite chocolate cake, decorated with white icing, and ice cream and punch. Each child was presented candy in baskets.

Sharing in the festivities were Carolyn's brother, Michael; Virginia and Donnie Holt; Richie and Mike Robertson; Billy Noe, Lynn Roberson, Rickie McLain; Vic and Margaret Konig; and Linda and Frank Halmey, of Long Beach. Trina Unland was unable to be present.

KINDERGARTEN TEA PROVES SUCCESSFUL

A lovely social event heralding the arrival of the new fall term occurred in the utility room of the school Wednesday afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Dickerson acted as hostess for the event, representing school officials, when she entertained mothers and their kindergarten school-age children.

Tea cakes, sandwiches and hot beverages were served from a table decorated with yellow tapers and a paper cloth adorned with a golden butterfly and flower design with napkins to match. A touch of yellow on the pastries and silver service completed the attractive arrangement. Appropriate fall flowers were placed about the room.

About 50 mothers attended the affair and became acquainted with school's program and schedule for the coming year.

LOCAL MARKET CHANGES HANDS

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bischof sold their grocery store on Lincoln avenue this week, which is called "Phil's market." New owner is Howard R. Decker, 9411 Grindlay street. He is well known in Cypress, having been employed in the Cypress hardware store at the time it was owned by Haskell Kelley.

"Phil" has not announced any definite plans for the future. Time will be spent in the next few weeks improving their residential property on Camp street.

SCHOOL HAS NEW NURSE

To work with just school children, Miss Alice Virginia Herick, a nurse, will visit in Cypress two days a week. She will care for pupils whether at school or ill at home.

Mrs. Vera Gilbert, a county nurse, will take care of preschool children and others. Parents wishing aid for other than elementary school students must contact the county nursing service.

This is a new arrangement this year. Miss Imogene Abby, who formerly visited the Cypress school, will be stationed in Fullerton and La Habra beginning next week.

Tickets for Barbecue, Television on Sale

TEEN CANTEEN NOTICE

All Cypress teen-agers, both hi and low, who are interested in teen-canteen for this school term must be at the meeting Friday evening, September 16, at 7:30 to be held in the Cypress school auditorium. Each teen-ager must bring at least one parent. Parents, if you are interested in your child's entertainment, be at the meeting with your child. Without you, the teen canteen cannot go on as teen-agers must be properly chaperoned.

Signed,
THE COMMITTEE

Request Members Bring Handwork To Club Meeting

Women who are members of the Cypress community club and their guests will meet next Tuesday afternoon in the home of the group's president, Mrs. Frank Noe, at 4891 Grace avenue. At two o'clock the hostess will comply with a dessert during a short social interlude to precede the business meeting. This is a departure from the organization's usual procedure.

Plans for White Gold Day will be discussed. The business meeting will be the last one before the scheduled day of celebration on October 8 and final decisions will be made. Anyone having unfinished work for the booth sponsored by the club is asked to bring it along. There will be members present who will assist in getting articles ready for sale.

CHAMBER WILL MEET

The regular meeting of the Cypress chamber of commerce will be held Monday at 8 p.m., Richard V. Hathcock, president announced yesterday.

Congratulations To Some Fine Fellows

In the near future, a bunch of good-natured softball players, their wives and a few interested townspeople of Cypress will gather at a home-made dinner to celebrate an accomplishment which Downey, Norwalk or other large towns in the vicinity could not achieve.

A shiny gold trophy will be presented to the town of Cypress, the prize for winning the championship of the Norwalk Softball association.

Those fellows who spent almost a full working day a week all summer won't get much more than passing recognition for their efforts. Nor will the business men who donated money to sponsor the team.

A few people, however, will realize that hundreds of strangers from other towns will have been impressed by our team's consistently winning against squads from large, wealthy companies. Those people went home with new admiration for "that little town on Lincoln."

Every bit of good publicity, large or small, which is garnered by successful ventures such as the Cypress Merchants' softball team, will help bring people and businesses to settle in Cypress.

LETHAL AS A BOMB

The cigarette — that harmless looking little tube of paper filled with tobacco — can be as lethal as a bomb. Last year, in New York City alone, smokers were responsible for more than 5600 fires which did a total damage of some $3,285,000. Tobacco was the biggest single contributor to the city's total loss of just under $20,000,000.

We can't blame the weed for this sorry record — and it is a record which is paralleled on a smaller scale in many other American cities, town, and villages. The offenders are the people who do the smoking. They smoke in bed. They lay cigars and cigarettes and hot pipes down and forget about them. They discard butts without seeing that they're extinguished.

It has long been known that carelessness with matches and smoking materials is a prime cause of forest fires which have destroyed millions upon millions of acres of forest over the years. This is one of the worst of all the tragedies fire causes — buildings can be erected in a comparatively short time, but burned trees cannot. One cigarette, one match, is all that is needed, when conditions are "right," to destroy for generations a natural wonderland.

How can such waste be stopped? Only the individual smoker has the answer. It lies in accepting the responsibility that is his every time he smokes.

ADMISSION DAY

Ninety-nine years ago in late October there was a great celebration in California. California had become a State!

Of course, the celebration should have been held on September 9, but in those days there wasn't the instant communication between the east and west we enjoy now. Even the pony express was a thing of the future, and so the news of California's admission to the Union had to wait for wagon trains to trudge across the continent or ships to sail "around the horn."

But although the celebration was tardy by many weeks the people of California were no less enthusiastic about the event. They seemed fully aware that the state they had founded was destined for great things. And how right they were!

Today, as then, that state is the goal of countless thousands. In 1850 it was the land of promise. It still is. Today it isn't gold but the golden promise of opportunity and better living that attracts them. The late A. P. Giannini who gave California world leadership in banking once declared: "My faith is as firm as ever that here our children will enjoy the finest living in the finest country in all the world." The many who are coming to California obviously share that view.

Only the future itself can reveal how great the future of California will be. But on this, the ninety-ninth birthday anniversary of the Golden State we may well feel proud of its past and confident that greater things are yet to come.

IT AIN'T THE HEAT-IT'S THE HUMILITY!

I RISE TO REMARK
by John Phillips

This is the biggest ship on which Mrs. Phillips and I have ever sailed. It is the largest and the fastest under the U. S. flag. The Maritime Commission is about to authorize construction of a larger ship, also for the United States Lines, of about 48,000 tons capacity, which will not be as large as the Queens, but will be the fastest ship afloat. There has been an argument about spending $80,000,000 for the new ship, and some members of the committee on Merchant Marine, and some members of the committee on Appropriations, including myself, have expressed a concern whether, in these days of atom bombs, and international delicacies, it wouldn't be better to build two or three, equally fast, but smaller ships, instead of one, big ship. They would also be more economical to operate. The Maritime Commission decided otherwise, and that is the way agencies and departments operate nowadays in Washington. They do just about what they want, and you foot the bills.

Speaking of the Queens, I did come back on the Queen Elizabeth in 1944, but that was wartime, and everything was stripped, and we had to carry life preservers with us all the time on a darkened ship. As a confirmed freight boat traveler, it is still hard for me to get used to a ship with five elevators, and all the conveniences of the Mission Inn, including the swimming pool. I prefer a ship where the ocean is right there, not where I have to go up three flights in an elevator and hunt for it. Incidentally, the ocean has been as smooth as the Salton Sea, and the weather clear and sunny.

Mrs. Phillips looks like an Imperial Valley garden beet, but I'm not unbitten yet; I've been doing some heavy exercising on the bed in my stateroom, trying to catch up on sleep lost in this recent session.

As Robert Benchley used to say, he kept a couch in his office, and if the urge to take exercise came over him, he lay down at once until it passed away.

The new Minister to Luxembourg is aboard, with her secretary, public relations secretary, and a sort of chauffeur - bodyguard. Mrs. Perle Mesta is our first Minister to the tiny principality of Luxembourg, and there is talk of this being a step to an Ambassadorship. Score one for the equal rights movement, in which she has been active. We were asked to the luncheon in her honor, on the ship, the day we sailed.

The Ambassador to Cuba, and Mrs. Butler, are aboard, and the Minister to Austria and Mrs. Erhardt. There are two other Representatives, Dan Reed of New York, going to the Inter-Parliamentary Union meeting, with Mrs. Reed and his granddaughter, and John McSweeney, of Ohio, with Mrs. McSweeney, on a visit to Ireland. So we have the ranking Republican from the Ways and Means committee; the Rules committee member who holds the deciding vote, and a member of the Appropriations committee. We also have the engineer of the commission I'm going over to investigate, but he doesn't know it yet. Let him have a good time, on the trip anyway.

This letter will be put off at Cobb. To an old conservative that's Queenstown, Ireland; then we land the next morning at La Havre, and the ship goes on to Southampton. That makes a seven days crossing; a half-day less for us. The next letter will be from Paris, and will report on conditions in France.

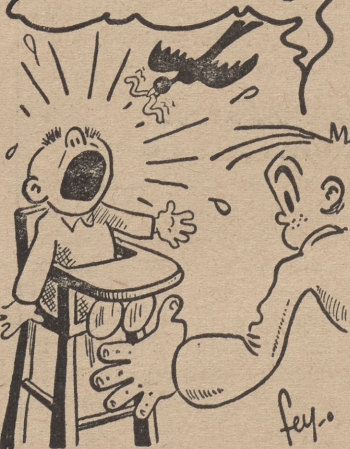

FOURTH NATION-WIDE

New College To
Open Sept. 26,
President States

At a luncheon Tuesday of last week, sponsored by the Education Committee of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, Dr. P. Victor Peterson, newly appointed president of the Orange-Southeastern Los Angeles State College, which opens in temporary quarters in Long Beach on September 26, was the guest of honor.

Highlights of Dr. Peterson's remarks were as follows: "With the promised cooperation of the Whaley interests, we shall be ready to start classes on Sept. 26, with an enrollment of approximately 200 students and a faculty of 14 which has already been selected — 11 of whom have doctor's degrees.

"Originally, our state colleges were teacher-training institutions, but have now become the people's local college on a four-year level.

"During the first year, starting next month, we shall not be able to offer full four-year courses, but will confine our curriculum to the last two years of college work, preparatory to a bachelor's degree. Entrance requirements will be two years of college work, with at least 48 semester units, so that students may be able to graduate with two additional years' work, plus two summer schools, if necessary.

"Three major fields will be covered during the first year, i.e. teacher training, (both elementary and secondary) business and pre-professional work. The business training will offer courses looking to employment in junior executive, top flight secretarial and managerial positions. The pre-professional will be limited to those who expect to go on in academic fields.

"In addition to such courses as English, history and mathematics, there will be specialized courses in law, medicine and osteopathy. As fast as the demand arises and our facilities permit, we shall expand into other fields.

"Our temporary office, at 5381 East Anaheim, Long Beach, is now open and applications will be received for registration on September 26.

"The only fees are a tuition fee of $25 per year and a student body fee of $5 per year.

Issues On Ballot In November Election Listed

One of the last acts of California's 49er session of the State Legislature was to schedule a Special Election for November 8 — and already the ballot battles are warming up.

The measures as they will appear on the November 8, 1949, ballot already have been announced by Secretary of State Frank Jordan and are as follows: Proposition 1 is to authorize a $250,000,000 bond issue for vitally needed school building construction. The measure was passed by the Legislature and referred to the people.

It was the urgency of Proposition 1 which prompted California's lawmakers to call the November Special Election — for, as pointed out by school authorities, if the buildings are not completed within the next two or three years, the state's school children will have trouble finding space for their school books, much less desk space.

As it will take considerable time to complete construction of the buildings even if the people approve Proposition 1, the Legislature decided that the voters should be permitted to render their decision this year rather than waiting for the 1950 General Election.

Proposition 2 is an initiative measure which would maintain pension payments to the aged of $75 monthly and to the blind of

Since the last election many people have openly said that if they had read the "fine print" they would not have voted for No. 4 as they did. Had it been studied and understood, it is more than likely that the very small margin by which it passed would have been completely reversed.

STREET LIGHTING DISTRICT DESIRED IN LOS ALAMITOS

First steps in creation of a street lighting district in the Los Alamitos area were taken by the Chamber of Commerce last week. Counsel W. C. Poe Jr., was instructed to arrange for a bond and forward it with a petition to the county supervisors.

The petition already has the required number of signatures, according to Mrs. August Labourdette, secretary.

Three lights on Los Alamitos blvd. are all that exist in the community at present. Should the supervisors approve, and an election favor formation of the district, it is planned to install street lights at all intersections in the residential sections.
